SEVEN FACULTY MEMBERS GRANTED 1979-80 LEAVES

Six faculty members have been granted sabbatical leaves and one a difference-in-pay leave for the 1979-80 academic year.

Arthur Moorefield, Professor and Chairman, Music, will be on leave during the the Winter and Spring Quarters of 1979-80 to continue work on his forthcoming publication on the 16th Century composer, Johannes Galliculus. Dr. Moorefield is writing a complete work on the German musician's compositions, of which Volume I was published in 1974.

He hopes to complete research for Volumes II and III during his leave, which will take him to Budapest, Bratislava, Dresden and Leipzig, where he was engaged in research last summer under a fellowship award from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

+

Frances Berdan, Assoc. Prof. and Chairman, Anthropology, plans to spend the Fall, 1979 Quarter completing her book, "Trade, Tribute and Market in the Aztec Empire." Dr. Berdan has signed a contract with the University of Oklahoma Press for the text to be published in connection with The Civilization of American Indian Series. During her leave she will revise and add data which she discovered in Mexico several years ago.

+

James Pierson, Assoc. Prof., Anthropology, has been granted leave during the Winter, 1980 Quarter to complete research and write a book on an ethnographic study of Australian aborigines who live in urban areas. He will work locally and in the Center for South Pacific Studies at U.C., Santa Cruz.

+

Wallace Cleaves, Assoc. Prof., Psychology, will work with staffs at the Veterans Administration hospitals in Sepulveda and Loma Linda on a project dealing with pain management and clinical neuro-psychology during Winter and Spring Quarters.

+

Richard Moss, Assoc. Prof. and Chairman, Economics, will utilize his Winter, 1980 leave to draft and complete a textbook in the area of public finance.

+

Carol Goss, Assoc. Prof., Political Science, in Winter Quarter, will write a research project on a study and analysis of committees in the United States Senate. She expects to develop a method of determining their political ideology. The project will become the subject of a series of articles.

+

Bruce Golden, Prof., English, has been granted a difference-in-pay leave for the 1979-80 year to revise and complete a book on "Tragedy in England and Spain during the Renaissance." Dr. Golden already has a considerable amount of the manuscript completed. During his year's leave he will develop and incor-

WOMEN WORKERS SUBJECT OF SMITHSONIAN EXHIBIT

The Smithsonian Traveling Exhibition Service has loaned a special exhibit to the College Library which focuses on the women labor movement in this country. Entitled "Workers and Allies: Female participation in the American Trade Union Movement, 1824-1976," the exhibit will be displayed on the first floor from January 20 through February 18.

The 39-panel show traces women's participation from their first anonymous ventures into the mills of New England, through the formation of sisterly self-improvement societies, to the blossoming of full-fledged and politically powerful trade unions.

CRIME PREVENTION COOPERATION URGED

The College Police Department has introduced a Crime Prevention Unit. Its goal is to acquaint all College personnel with its operation and to promote cooperation with the unit and all faculty, staff and students of the College to prevent crime on campus.

Periodically the Bulletin will carry tips on crime prevention submitted by the College Police.

TIP NO.1:

Always lock your office if you are alone after hours, or at night. Notify the College Police of your location and departure time.

MINIMUM PAY FOR STUDENT ASSISTANTS

Effective January 1, 1979, student employees working on campus will be paid no less than the new Federal minimum wage of $2.90 per hour.

This means that the beginning hourly rate for new student assistants has been raised from $2.73 to $2.90 per hour.

Rates for other than first year student assistants will be determined by the Administrative Council before the current January pay period ends.

"MEDEA" SCHEDULED AS WINTER QUARTER DRAMA

"Medea," one of the best known Greek tragedies, written by Euripides more than two thousand years ago, will be the Theatre Arts Department's drama offering for the Winter Quarter.

Opening date is Thursday, February 22. Other performances are billed for February 23-24; 27-28; and March 1-3. Ronald E. Barnes, chairman of the department, who has directed other Greek plays here including Sophocles' "Antigone" and "Bacchae" by Euripides, will direct "Medea," also.

Noted, even in his own time, for his dramatizations of the strong and violent passions of men, and especially of women, Euripides' message in "Medea" is a caution against excess of emotion and a warning against bitter vengeance.

Playing the role of Medea is Yolanda Castaneda Hernandez. Her husband, Jason, will be played by Richard Pope. Others in the cast are Dawn Peacock, Mike Baran, Jack Freund, Mary Lou Chandler, Charles Brown, Corinne Schnur, Julie Loughlin, David Reese, Don Gruber and Dawna Gregory.

MUSIC THROUGH THE CENTURIES
FEATURED IN WED. ORGAN RECITAL

An organ recital featuring works from major periods in musical history will be presented on campus Wednesday evening, January 17. Performing on the College's new baroque organ will be Herbert Iverson, CSCSB organ instructor.

The concert will begin at 8:15 p.m. in the Recital Hall of the Creative Arts Building.

The program starts with an early 1500 selection by Jan Sweelnick, composed of six variations. Bach's "Fugue in G Minor," will represent the 1600s.

For the 1700s, a selection by Mozart will be presented, "Phantasie in F Minor." From the 20th century Iverson will offer a selection by John Weaver written in 1967, "Rhapsody for Flute and Organ." A composition by Robert Schumann for the 19th century and a piece by Wilbur Held in the 20th century round out the program.

Mr. Iverson, who is a minister of music at the First Congregational Church in San Bernardino, has presented a number of organ recitals and provided accompaniment throughout the country. He is also a choral accompanist and instructor at San Bernardino Valley College.

Fee for the recital is $1.50; students with I.D. and children will be admitted free of charge.
